

COVID-19 and migration: impact, lessons learned and proposals

Opening remarks

Mireia Vall Urbea, Secretary for Equality, Migration and Citizenship, Government of Catalonia

Moderator

Gonzalo Fanjul, researcher and activist on poverty and development. Policy Director at ISGlobal and co-founder of the porCausa foundation

Speakers

Jaime Calderon, Regional Migration Health Advisor, International Organization for Migration

Jessenia Lagos, psychologist, President of “Dones Endavant” association, migrant women's rights activist

Helena Maleno, human rights defender at Walking Borders, journalist and researcher specialized in migration and trafficking in human beings

Gemma Pinyol, Head of Migration and Diversity Policies at Instrategies and associate researcher at GRITIM-Pompeu Fabra University

Organised by

Generalitat de Catalunya

Tuesday, 13 April 2021 via Zoom

5 pm - 6:30 pm (Barcelona)

1 pm - 2:30 pm (Buenos Aires)

11 am - 12:30 pm (New York)

Register at: bit.ly/CovidMigracions

Webinar with simultaneous interpretation: English/Spanish.

